THE LESSONS

FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 56: 1, 6-8

Thus says the LORD:

Maintain justice, and do what is right,
for soon my salvation will come,
and my deliverance be revealed.

And the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, to love the name of the LORD,
and to be his servants,

all who keep the sabbath, and do not profane it,
and hold fast my covenant-- these I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer;

their burnt offerings and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar;

for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Thus says the Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel,
I will gather others to them
besides those already gathered.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

PSALM 67:1-7 (We will read in unison)

- 1 May God be merciful to us and bless us, *
show us the light of his countenance and come to us.
- 2 Let your ways be known upon earth, *
your saving health among all nations.
- 3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
- 4 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *
for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.
- 5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; *
let all the peoples praise you.
- 6 The earth has brought forth her increase; *
may God, our own God, give us his blessing.
- 7 May God give us his blessing, * and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

THE SECOND LESSON

Romans 11:1-2a, 29-32

I ask, then, has God rejected his people? By no means! I myself am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, a member of the tribe of Benjamin. God has not rejected his people whom he foreknew.

For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. Just as you were once disobedient to God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now been disobedient in order that, by the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God has imprisoned all in disobedience so that he may be merciful to all.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Please stand as you are able.

SEQUENCE HYMN: Pass Me Not, O Gentle Savior L 139

The Deacon or Priest says

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

THE GOSPEL

Matthew 15:21-28

Jesus left that place and went away to the district of Tyre and Sidon. Just then a Canaanite woman from that region came out and started shouting, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David; my daughter is tormented by a demon." But he did not answer her at all. And his disciples came and urged him, saying, "Send her away, for she keeps shouting after us." He answered, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But she came and knelt before him, saying, "Lord, help me." He answered, "It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Yes, Lord, yet even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their masters' table." Then Jesus answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed instantly.

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate:
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

The Canaanite woman pressed upon Jesus her needs and was heard. With expectant faith, let us place before God earnest petitions for ourselves and our world, saying: Lord, have pity on us

For our world, in need of healing, in search of a savior, yet far from Jesus, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

For the churches and their leaders, at times narrowed by institutional concerns and blind to differing manifestations of faith, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

For those who are troubled by demons of mind and body, for those who must watch others suffer, for all the sick, especially , Arnie, Bianca, Calmeater, Catherine G., Catherine M., Cleveland, Charles, Dalitso, David, Deane, Delano, Edward, Emmett, Eric, Funteller, Helenor, Hosea, Janice, Janie, Jerry, Joseph, Joyce C., Joyce W., Jomar, Kat, Lenore, Lauriant, Marcus R., Martha, Muriel, Myleia, Nicole, Patrick, Robert W., Rosalind, Ruby, Sean, Sheila A., Shirley, Terry, Walter, Wanda, Wendell, and Willie F., let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

For those whose faith is impelling them beyond the limits of society and the constraints of culture, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

For all of us here present, for those whose faith is known to God alone, and for those intentions we hold deep in our hearts, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

For those who have died, that in passing beyond the cares of this world they may no longer be in want for any good thing, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

Please offer your own intercessions at this time.

For Michael, our Presiding Bishop; Bonnie our Bishop; Moises, Bishop of the Dominican Republic; Elizabeth, Donald, and Craig, Bishops in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America; Church of the Incarnation, Ann Arbor; St. Michael's, Lansing; Divine Grace, Mosovi, Dominican Republic; and for all the clergy and people, let us call out to the Lord. Lord, have pity on us.

CONCLUDING COLLECT BY THE CELEBRANT

Infinite God, we have no claim to your mercy; yet it is your mercy we so desperately need. Turn your ear toward our supplications, and grant us your healing touch. We ask this with faith in the name of Jesus, who is savior of the world and one with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

CONFESSION OF SIN

BCP 360

The Deacon says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Celebrant and people together

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Celebrant stands and says:

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

For you are the source of light and life; you made us in your image, and called us to new life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your name:

Celebrant and People

SANCTUS

HS 130

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

The People stand or kneel.

The Celebrant continues:

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues:

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through you Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to sing,

People and Celebrant

THE LORD'S PRAYER

LEV 264

Our Father, which art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done,

Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation,

for ever and ever. Amen.

R. Wood Obituary

Rt. Rev. R. Stewart Wood, Jr.

Hanover , NH - The Rt. Rev. R Stewart Wood, Jr., "Stew" to all his friends and colleagues, died on July 30, 2023, after a long and deeply satisfying life.

He enjoyed high school sports and theater and experienced an eye-opening education at Dartmouth College, Virginia Theological Seminary, Ball State University and most recently continuing education courses at Osher.

As a clergyman, he had the chance to serve in rural as well as urban settings before being elected bishop in the Episcopal Church's Diocese of Michigan in 1988. Social justice issues dominated his ministry. Poverty, the war in Vietnam, the problems created by the limits on low and moderate income housing for those living on substandard salaries, and racial and gender injustice were the interests that filled his working days and retirement.

Always modest, it would be left to others to acknowledge Stew's important leadership on social justice issues in the Church, and his significant contribution to the changes which allowed first women, and later gay and lesbian persons, to be ordained.

Stew and Kristin Lie Miller were married in June of 1955. They spent Stew's last year of college and his three years of seminary together before starting a family. Seventeen years in the Diocese of Indianapolis serving congregations and a social service agency preceded eight years in Glendale Ohio and four years in Memphis, Tennessee.

His last 12 years of active ministry in the Church were spent as Bishop of Michigan. He described this role as seeking to be a pastor to pastors and to congregations as the Church sought to make a real difference with the issues of the day while experiencing the frustration of shrinking membership and dwindling resources. He never feared exposing his feelings. Stirred by the scripture he sought to share in his preaching, he was frequently moved to tears.

Late in life, Stew was diagnosed with learning disabilities which explained why he struggled throughout his formal education. He nonetheless delighted in his participation in a men's summer book club in retirement and was a voracious reader.

Golf filled those springs, summers, and falls while tennis gave his winters some indoor activity. He often spoke of his treasured memories of playing golf with his dad and the steak sandwich that followed in the "19th hole." In his "retirement," Stew was active with The Haven, a service center for the homeless in White River Junction, Vermont, The Vermont Advisory Committee to the U.S. Civil Rights Commission, Osher, Dartmouth's continuing education program, and the activities of the resident community at Kendal at Hanover N.H. All of these brought him great satisfaction. Those he served cherished his leadership.

When Stew was in a room, he filled it. He had an engaging smile, and he laughed easily. He genuinely enjoyed meeting and listening to people. His daughter Lisa remembers having her Dad accompany her to doctor's or dentist's appointments, and how Stew loved to engage with office staff or others in the waiting room. This interest in engaging with others stayed with him throughout his life. When he talked with you, he really listened.

Stew is predeceased by his parents, Raymond Wood and Marjorie Campbell Hindman, his sister, Joan Atkinson Kay of Vero Beach Florida, and earlier this year his wife, Kristin of Hanover, NH.

He is survived by their daughter, Lisa Cameron Wood, her husband Peter Michelson, and their daughters, Marisa and Abigail; Raymond S Wood, III and his wife, Mary Anne and their children: R Stewart Wood, IV, Anna and Henry: and, their son, Michael Andrew Wood, and his wife Denise and their children Noah, Devon and Sydney.

Stew talked about "looking into the cross," and trying to discern what God intended us to do to help others. He was joined in this by his wife, Kristin. Together, they loved and supported each other through 67 years of marriage, in full lives devoted to God and the service of others.

The Memorial Service is scheduled for:

Saturday, September 9th

1:00 p.m.

Rollins Chapel
(Dartmouth College Campus)
29 College St
Hanover, NH 03755

Notes of condolence to Bishop Wood's family may be sent in care of:

St. Paul's Episcopal Church
749 Hartford Avenue
White River Junction, VT 05001

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Stew's honor to a charity devoted to the social justice issues important to him. Published by Valley News on Aug. 10, 2023.

Note: We are still awaiting updates for livestreaming information of the service, but we will share that once it becomes available.
